IFE's 2010 Leadership Dinner— US AND EGYPT

Leading Through Economic and Cultural Partnerships

Thursday, May 13
6:00 PM

The Egyptian Embassy
3521 International Court, N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Nearly one year after President Obama's historic speech at Cairo University, the themes of economic and cultural partnership are as important as ever for leaders from both countries and around the world to build a better and more secure future. At the 2010 Leadership Dinner, IFE will announce the exploration of a Learn Serve Egypt, sending local teens to perform community service there. It will be the first Learn Serve program in the Middle East.

Institute for Education's mission is to recognize, encourage, and promote Civility and leadership locally, nationally, and in the world community. IFE also encourages Youth Global Citizenship with programs that foster intercultural understanding.
