

Celebrating common ground at Chairman George Vradenburgs Phillips Collection Gala

Institute for Education joins the Phillips Collection in celebrating the historic museum's cultural and educational offerings at its annual gala.

The Collection's Chairman, George Vradenburg, joined IFE's Founding CEO, Kathy Kemper, in welcoming Supreme Court Justices Ruth Bader Ginsburg and Samuel Alito, along with their spouses; Gubernatorial Candidate Bob McDonnell (R-VA); His Excellency Ichiro Fujisaki and his wife, Yoriko; His Excellency Said Jawad and his wife, Shamin; and Carter Pate and his wife, Angie.

In IFE's tradition of finding common ground, guests mingled in the museum's courtyard and strolled through its treasured exhibits before enjoying a lavish dinner under paintings by Bonnard, Matisse, and Monet."
